

Key Opportunities for PhD Project Members at the AOM Annual Meeting:

Introductory Guide to AOM and the Annual Meeting

The following guide is a brief overview and user manual for first-time attendees of the Academy of Management's Annual Meeting. This guide was first written by AOM member Alan Meyer in 2012 as "A Hitch Hiker's Guide to the Academy of Management."

It was written to orient a group of 25 young African scholars who were about to make their first visit to the Academy of Management and assumes that the reader had no familiarity with AOM or attending a large, academic conference.

First Time Attendees

The Annual Meeting is an exciting event full of opportunities to learn from colleagues, share knowledge, and network with peers. View the tips below to help you plan and get the most out of your first Annual Meeting experience.

Volunteer Opportunities

Career Services is always looking for extra support during the Annual Meeting. Our registration desk, located on the 3rd floor of the Marriott Boston Copley, is the first stop for those who are either recruiting or on the market. Our general volunteers help guide attendees to their assigned rooms, answer general questions, and build networks with other members Friday – Monday from 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 pm. No experience is necessary and if you are able to help for at least 4 hours, you are welcome to attend our Monday evening appreciation dinner.

If you don't have the time to commit but you would like to see how the AOM Career Fair is set up, come on over and we'd be happy to walk you through the space. Please send an email to Wendy Kramer at wkramer@aom.org if interested or have any questions.
